Re: MAUR 6445

To Whom It May Concern:

U.S. Digital has received your letter dated January 4, 2011 indicating that the Commission has received a complaint that indicates that U.S. Digital may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (the "Act"). I have reviewed the complaint which states that it is a complaint against Notolls.com PAC and states that the Respondent is NOTOLLS.COM ("Notolls"). I did not see any indication that the complaint was directed at U.S. Digital. U.S. Digital did make contributions in kind to Notolls which was addressing a local issue of 5913 for the I-5 bridge over the Columbia River which tolls would have significant adverse effects on the citizens of Clark County Washington. I certainly understand that David Madore, President of U.S. Digital, made contributions to Notolls. I further understand from the complaint that Notolls did put out a mailer to local people that did advocate the election of Dino Rossi and Jamie Herrera and listed them as preferred candidates on a website. However, I understand from Josephine Wentzel of Notolls that as soon as Notolls recognized the problem the website was amended and the mailer was discontinued.

Again, please let me know if in fact there is a complaint against U.S. Digital and, if so, I would request an extension of time to respond to such a complaint if one exists.

Thanks for your attention.

Respectfully,

Robert Willoughby
